Thru this excitement of water molecule in our cells, heat energy is release. As heat is generated, it helps in warming the area that it comes into contact with.

• Magnetism Therapy : The energy stone which produces heating energy thru its far infrared ray's granules also generates a magnetic field with up to 1100 gauss emitted in a helical formation through our body. Coupling the Far infrared and the magnetic effect with the heat generated, the 3R E-Belt is beneficial to those suffering from joints and muscle pain like osteoporosis, rheumatism and circulatory problem in the legs and hands.
